Britain Freedom Festival

Syrina

It seems the Daemon Lord Beleth has tired of Britain and returned to the Icy lands of Caina.
Thus the City of Britain is now free to begin rebuilding. To that end,
The Britain Council of Virtue announces The
Britain Freedom Festival,
to take place Saturday, March 1, 2003 beginning at 5pm at the Trammel Britain Fairgrounds.

Our first event is the Greater Britannia Treasure Hunt, sponsored by Greyskull of OPG and Tapestry of O|S. This will be a massive cross facet, high level map digging event!!! We will have at least two treasure hunters on hand should the crowds be too large for one group. We'll have maps of many levels to satisfy even the bravest and the greediest of treasure seekers!

At 7pm Eastern, those not exhausted from the treasure hunting can enjoy such events as:

Whipping Vine Hunting
Vorpall Bunny Hunting
Archery Contest
Cock Fights

We will also have a game of wit! You'll be given a locked box with a prize inside. You may ask twenty questions to help you guess what trinket or treasure is locked inside.

Guess correctly and the prize is yours!

Also, be sure to visit the booths of our local and visiting crafters, who will offer up their wares throughout the Festival!
Vendors will also be selling food and spirits.
And don't miss our exclusive Kissing Booths!
Line up for a smooch
from one of our 'to die for' Kissers!

But wait! The Britain Freedom Festival has a very specific goal in mind and that is to rebuild Britain and get our crops growing again. For that reason, all events will require payment for participation in SEEDS!
Yes, that's right! Bring your seeds of any type to pay your way for all the events, including kisses! Don't have any seeds, you say?! Worry not, for there will be vendors on the grounds to sell you the seeds you need to take part in this extraordinary celebration!
Mark your calendars! Hope to see you there!
